

TELEPHONE PROVISION IN RECTORIES

Unless specific instruction is given to any service provider when a vacancy occurs in an incumbency, it is possible that the telephone service will be disconnected and the telephone number discontinued. This can lead to reconnection charges as well as the inconvenience of notifying a new telephone number to parishioners and others when a new incumbent is appointed. Select Vestries should ensure that appropriate action is taken to preserve the line.