St Colman's Church, Kilroot

40th Anniversary

Celebrations

A modern parish with an ancient history

Welcome to our 40th Anniversary events

The parish of Kilroot has a history spanning many centuries. It has long been associated with St. Colman, and for a while towards the end of the 17th century, Jonathan Swift (later Dean of St Patrick's and author of Gulliver's Travels) was Prebendary of Kilroot.

This year marks both the 40th anniversary of the first church on the present site on the Larne Road, and also the 30th anniversary of the present church building.

In celebrating this special occasion, we want to thank God for the vision of those who established the new church and particularly for the many blessings He has bestowed upon us over the last 40 years. We also wish to look forward to the future, and to trust God as He leads us on into the 21st century.

It is my pleasure, on behalf of myself and the Select Vestry, to invite you to join us at our special anniversary events being held from Friday 9th to Sunday 11th December. We hope to welcome you at one or, even better, all of these events.
