Preach the Word; be prepared in season and out of season. Patiently correct, rebuke and encourage your people with good teaching. 2 Timothy 4:2

The Dean and Chapter invite you to a masterclass of preaching, aiming to bless and equip your ministry...

Conference Keynote Address by Revd Charlie Cleverly, St Aldate's, Oxford

SEMINAR A - PREACHING WITH IMAGINATION

with Rev Charlie Cleverly

The aim of this seminar is to inspire us to think imaginatively about our preaching, from preparation, through the shaping of the sermon, and on into the event of delivery. Imagination is indispensable to preaching – for preacher and for listener. This session seeks to encourage us to take faithful and imaginative risks in our preaching.

SEMINAR B - UNPACKING THE PREACHING OF THE WORD OF GOD

with Bishop Elect Ferran Glenfield
Hillsborough Parish and Irish College of Preachers

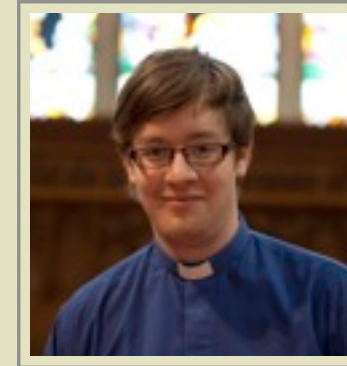

How can we prepare and present the Word of God in ways that engage our people and send them out encouraged? Ferran will lead us in looking at thoroughly practical ideas for teaching God's everlasting message.

SEMINAR C - PREACHING AND TEACHING THOSE IN THEIR 20'S AND 30'S

with Rev Simon Genoe, Curate of Lisburn Cathedral

Young adults are often seen as the group who are missing from our churches, yet many in this age group are keen to discover meaning and purpose through relevant preaching. Simon will provide encouragement and tools from his experience of teaching young adults.

SEMINAR D - TEACHING CHRISTIAN LIVING IN A SECULAR AGE

with Rev Vanessa Parr, Associate Rector at St Paul and St George's, Edinburgh

Is the Gospel relevant to lives today? Can the Christian truth be communicated to people who belong to a secular age? Vanessa will share from her ministry of teaching and preaching a life-transforming Gospel.
