

Clergy Training Day

Children's Ministry

Friday 25th March — 10.15 am to 2.30 pm (lunch included)

Jordanstown Parish Halls, Jordanstown

Speakers: Nick Harding and Peter Hamill

Subjects: Children, culture and the Facebook generation
How are they wired? What are the issues for our leaders?
'Pick up and run' — practical resources for taking assemblies

Nick Harding is Diocesan Advocate for Children's Ministry for the Diocese of Southwell and Nottingham, and he is an author on a range of practical books for those working in children's ministry.

Peter Hamill recently completed an in-depth research project looking at the issues for leaders in children's ministry in Connor Diocese. He will be sharing his findings and discussing the implications of these for the future

This event is aimed at clergy and anyone in a ministry role working with children — all are welcome to attend
