

IMAGINE THERE'S NO HEAVEN...

...it's easy if you try - but is it true?

CS Lewis wrote of a different world, enthraling generations with The Chronicles of Narnia. But were these writings simply child's play or a portrayal of the cosmos centred on Jesus Christ?

MONDAY 21ST FEBRUARY 6PM

IMAGINE THERE'S NO HEAVEN

What sort of cosmological models did Lewis wrestle with in his writings and is the universe made richer or poorer by the absence of God?

TUESDAY 22ND FEBRUARY 6PM

ABOVE US ONLY SKY?

An introduction to the theological imagination of Lewis that inspired the world of Narnia and a robust commitment to the Christian faith

Visiting Lecturer:

Rev. Dr. Michael Ward, author of The Narnia Code

Venue: David Keir Building, Room LG 115
Stranmillis Road, Queens University Belfast

Parking on both evenings - Ashby Building Car Park, Stranmillis Road
Tea / Coffee reception in The Hub from 4pm on both days (22 Elmwood Avenue, Belfast)

TUESDAY 22ND FEBRUARY 12.30PM in THE HUB

CONVERSE WITH THE DAWN TREADER

An opportunity to meet with Dr Michael Ward and discuss life, theology, Narnia and Lewis hosted in The Hub, 22 Elmwood Avenue Belfast

www.thehubbelfast.org www.michaelward.net www.narniacode.com

Further Info: Contact Tanya Johnston at 02890 667754 Email: coisc@dnet.co.uk

2011

Church of Ireland Theological Lectures
Queens University, Belfast

walk through the wardrobe... the world's bigger than you think

