

OUT OF THE FIRE

Thursday 25 October – Sunday 28 October 2007
Lisburn Cathedral, Castle Street, Lisburn, Co Antrim

300 years ago, a huge fire engulfed Lisburn town and cathedral. This dazzling flower festival, masterminded by world renowned floral designer Rev William McMillan, celebrates three centuries of worship since the cathedral's reconstruction.

Photo: John O'Neill

ENTRY FREE. Donations to "Lisburn Cathedral Renovation Fund" and to assist the building of Mongo Primary School in Sudan.

Details: Lisburn Cathedral Church Office, Castle Street, Lisburn

Telephone: 028 92 602 400

Email: office@lisburncathedral.org

Website: www.lisburncathedral.org

300 years of praise and worship celebrated in flowers

WHEN IT'S ON & HOW TO FIND US

Thursday 25 October

Preview from 2pm to 6pm
8pm Festival Opening Service

Friday 26 October

Viewing 10am to 6pm
8pm Celebration Service

Saturday 27 October

Viewing 10am to 10pm
including musical accompaniment
Flower demonstration by Rev
William McMillan and team in the Cathedral Hall at 3pm (ticket only)

Sunday 28 October

11am Thanksgiving Service
Viewing 2pm to 6pm
7pm Praise Service

*Morning coffee, lunches and afternoon tea available.
Group catering and high teas available by arrangement.*

There is plenty of car parking available in the area nearby but not at the Cathedral itself.

