

Game: Fruit Salad

Purpose: a good mixer and silly game to get everyone moving, ideally played with 10+ people

Give everyone a name of a fruit. Ensure that there is at least 2 young people with the same fruit so just use a couple of fruits and repeat them. Get all your young people in a circle, with everyone sitting in a chair apart from one person standing in the middle.

Have the main leader call out fruits at random. If the fruit is called, those people must swap places while the person in the middle tries to get a seat. Whoever is left standing, remains in the middle and has to try and get a seat when the next fruits are called.

The main leader can also call out 'FRUIT BOWL' which means all the players must switch seats.
