Guest speakers include:

Jonathan Rue, Simon Guillebaud, Rob Parsons, Nicola Neal,
Mark Melliish and many more...

We have been told to fix our eyes on Jesus who is the author and perfecter of our faith. We yearn for the Holy Spirit to transform our lives from the inside out and we want to see His Kingdom expand through our churches and in our nations.

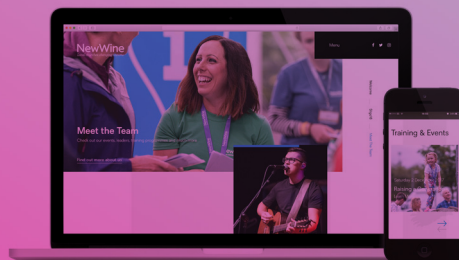

We believe that the local church can influence and change this island for Christ. We at New Wine Ireland want to see this vision flourish. We seek to encourage people to encounter Christ regardless of their age or experience. We have relevant and fun filled programmes at our annual conference for those aged 0-18 that encourage them to move deeper in Christ. For the adults, we have two main stages for Bible teaching and evening celebrations as well as 10 seminar spaces. We also have a specially designed programme for those with additional needs. Our key values of worship, teaching and ministry are held firmly throughout our entire programme.

There is so much flexibility as to what you can do at Sligo 18. There will be plenty of seminars, teaching and workshops. Alternatively, you can get involved with our community programmes, take a trip to beach if the sun is shining or enjoy exploring the sites of Sligo town. How you structure your week is up to you.

We are delighted to have speakers like Jonathan Rue (Desert Vineyard, California), Nicola Neal (Every Life), Rob Parsons (Care for the Family), Simon Guillebaud (Great Lakes Outreach, Burundi), Mark Mellaish (St Paul's Ealing, London), Matt Bird (Cinnamon Network), Matt Barlow (Christians Against Poverty), Sir Nigel Hamilton (former Head of NI Civil Service), Bishop Kevin Doran (Elphin Diocese), Gareth Black (Zacharias Trust) and many others from across Ireland, the UK and beyond joining us at Sligo 18.
