

constructive conservation

making smarter applications for heritage consents: shortening the timeframe from the completion of the specification to the erection of the scaffold

AGENDA

Session 1

- 8.45 - 9.15 Registration, tea and coffee
- 9.15 - 9.20 Welcome to Riddel Hall
- 9.20 - 9.40 Introduction - why heritage matters
Manus Deery, Historic Environment Division Architect
- 9.40 - 10.00 Effective planning consultations
Brian McKervey, Historic Environment Division Architect
- 10.00 - 10.20 Second Survey and statements of significance
Anne Menary, Historic Environment Division Architect
- 10.20 - 10.50 The essentials of a good application for Listed Building Consent [LBC]
Natalie O'Rourke, Historic Environment Division Architect
- 10.50 - 11.05 Q&A
- 11.05 - 11.20 Tea /Coffee Break

Session 2

- 11.20 – 11.40 Considering archaeology in the planning process
Andrew Gault, Historic Environment Division Archaeologist
- 11.40 - 12.30 Complying with regulations whilst conserving our heritage- access, energy and fire
Joseph Birt, Technical Director QUAM Consulting LTD
- 12.30 - 12.50 An ABC of LBC and the Historic Environment Fund
Caroline Maguire, Historic Environment Division Architect
- 12.50 - 1.00 Conclusion and next steps
Brian McKervey and Manus Deery

Sandwich lunch & opportunity for consultations with HED architects*

*Note- to be booked in advance- please email us hedcommunications@communities-ni.gov.uk or phone (028) 90 823207 to register an interest for a 10 minute slot with a HED architect. Please indicate the building/ heritage structure and topic and remember to bring along the relevant material. Photos and sketches will be beneficial.

2.00pm Seminar concludes