

| Actions                                               | Consequences | Actions                                                        | Consequences |
|-------------------------------------------------------|--------------|----------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|
| I practised my piano for an hour every day this week. |              | I stayed up to watch a late film.                              |              |
| I studied hard last night for my Friday test.         |              | I ate a whole box of chocolates in one go.                     |              |
| I lost my front door key.                             |              | I broke a window in school and didn't let on it was me.        |              |
| I stole a fiver from mum's purse.                     |              | I went into town after school and didn't get my homework done. |              |

| Actions                                            | Consequences | Actions                                               | Consequences |
|----------------------------------------------------|--------------|-------------------------------------------------------|--------------|
| I read the bible every day before I go to sleep.   |              | I did the washing up for mum.                         |              |
| I helped old Mrs Spence next door tidy her garden. |              | I got into a fight with my best friend yesterday.     |              |
| I saved up my pocket money for 2 months.           |              | I invited the whole class group to my birthday party. |              |
| I forgot to bring my packed lunch to school.       |              | I made dad a cup of tea because he was feeling tired. |              |

Consequences

|                                                            |                                                        |                                                           |                                                       |
|------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|
| I won first prize at the music festival.                   | I am learning lots about God.                          | I slept through my alarm, got up late and missed the bus. | Mum was so pleased she's taking me to the cinema.     |
| I got all my spelling right this week and got a gold star. | Mrs Spence told my parents they should be proud of me. | I felt so sick and I had a sore stomach.                  | I had nobody to play with or talk to at school today. |
| I had to wait outside my house until mum came home.        | I was able to buy the game I'd been wanting for ages.  | Everyone in the class had their school trip cancelled.    | I got to know some people in my class much better.    |
| Mum found out and grounded me for a week.                  | I was hungry and couldn't concentrate all afternoon.   | My teacher was angry and gave me detention.               | Dad said he'd fix my bike for me as a thank you.      |