

The Corrymeela Community is recruiting for the following post:

Programme Manager: Public Theology	Full Time, Permanent 37.5 hours per week £30,097 per annum
---	---

Base: Corrymeela, Belfast and Ballycastle

The primary responsibility of the Programme Manager for the Public Theology theme is to support Corrymeela's strategy by:

- researching and reporting on how theology influences society;
- articulating the theologies that underpin Corrymeela's values and purpose;
- delivering public theology programmes that nurture respectful relationships and contribute to a more cohesive society;
- adding value to colleagues' work by identifying the theological currents which may be influencing the strategic priorities they are delivering;
- communicating progress to relevant stakeholders;
- securing funding for the Public Theology programme and Corrymeela's wider mission.

The post holder would work between our offices in Belfast and Ballycastle, as required. Travel across the island of Ireland and the United Kingdom may also be required to meet the needs of the organisation.

This post is part-funded by NICRC Core Funding Programme and the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade Reconciliation Fund.
