

Nehemiah, can you fix it?

Sung to the Tune of Bob the Builder

Nehemiah, can you fix it?
Nehemiah, yes you can!
Nehemiah, can you fix it?
Nehemiah, yes you can!

He goes to the King and his face is glum
He's feeling so sad about Jerusalem
He pleads with the King to let him go
And he prays to God that he won't say no!

Nehemiah, can you fix it?
Nehemiah, yes you can!
Nehemiah, can you fix it?
Nehemiah, yes you can!

King Artaxerxes thinks long and hard
Yes, you can go but you'll need a guard
Take some soldiers and some supplies too
And I pray that your God will go with you.

Nehemiah, can you fix it?
Nehemiah, yes you can!
Nehemiah, can you fix it?
Nehemiah, yes you can!

Jerusalem was in a terrible state
The walls were broken and so was the gate
'Let's get to work', Nehemiah shouted
The gates need repaired and the walls need grouted.

Nehemiah, can you fix it?
Nehemiah, yes you can!
Nehemiah, can you fix it?
Nehemiah, yes you can!

With enemies against them causing bother
A hammer in one hand, a sword in the other,
They worked in the rain, the wind, and the sun,
And by working together they got the job done!

Nehemiah, can you fix it?
Nehemiah, yes you can!
Nehemiah, can you fix it?
Nehemiah, yes you can
